INTERNATIONAL VOLUNTEERS

To YIC joined the volunteer of the ESC programme Hannah Pintson Hanna came from Estonia in the frames of European Solidarity Corps programme to work with Gyumri "Youth Initiative Centre" NGO for 7 months. Welcome to our big and warm family!!!

Every month at "Youth House" is full of exciting, substantial, educational and entertaining events.

The staff and the youngsters of the centre took a walking tour on November 2 in the following directions: Mayisyan, Hatsik, and Tsak Qar.

"Arevik" publishing-house cooperating with the US Embassy organized training about bullying on November 9. During the training, the youngsters learned about bullying as well as possible and impossible dangers caused by it. At the end of the training, the book "Each Kindness" written by Jacqueline Woodson was also presented and hold a place not only in our library but also was given as a present to all participants of the training. The training was conducted by education expert Misha Tadevosyan.

This month the series of our interesting, meaningful and instructive clubs has been complemented by two more: yoga and debate clubs.

The youngsters of the centre visited "Ani Photoservice" on November 13, where they saw the interesting items (pictures) made by corks and knew about "Teymortak" and "My spinning top" games. The young people had the opportunity to learn and test how to get the thread from the plastic bottles. And the most striking part of the day was when the youngsters learned how to play one of the best childhood games "Spinning top". A certificate was given to Arevik Tadevosyan who did volunteering at the centre as a receptionist from May till October.

UNICEF Office in Armenia organized a National summit for children with representative teams from all regions of Armenia – 8-9th- grade girls and boys on November 18-20. The objective was to highlight and celebrate refreshed commitments made by decision-makers to realize child rights and showcase the work being done to include children as critical stakeholders.

Our students, who introduced the idea of "Community with our hands" during "UPSHIFT Armenia" Adolescents Development and Empowerment programme, also participated in the summit.

"The youth worker training" annual programme was held in Vanadzor in November. During the programme the centre coordinator Gayane Araqelyan and the youth worker Angela Djanoyan spoke about the topic of "open youth work" in Armenia as well as Gyumri's "Youth house" OYC as the first and unique open youth centre in Armenia. Vanadzor Technology Centre hosted a congress directed to the development of local and international cooperation on November 22, during which the centre coordinator Gayane Araqelyan spoke about the topic of "Open youth work in Armenia" as well as Gyumri's "Youth house" OYC .

We had an interesting and important meeting at the end of the month. Our youngsters met with Nazeli Baghdasaryan, a member of the National Assembly of the Republic of Armenia as well as YIC local advisory board, who spoke about her multiprofessional path and the importance of youngster's role in society.
